From Surbiton with Love: Residents enjoy James Bond Day at Royal Star & Garter

Staff had a licence to thrill when Royal Star & Garter put on a James Bond Day for residents at its Surbiton Home.

Hosted by staff in black tie, the residents sipped Martini cocktails (shaken, not stirred naturally), enjoyed the glamour of the casino, took part in a 007 quiz and danced as Healthcare Assistant Jodie Halls sang a string of Bond classics.

Royal Star & Garter is a charity which provides loving compassionate care to veterans and their partners living with disability or dementia, from Homes in Solihull, Surbiton and High Wycombe.

The Home has hosted a series of popular special events and activities since the pandemic outbreak, including an American Party and Caribbean Day.

These fun events create a lively, stimulating atmosphere and support residents' sense of purpose.

Resident Bet said: "We had such fun. I loved the casino and sipping the Martini cocktail. And Jodie has a beautiful voice. To borrow a line from The Spy Who Loved Me... Nobody does it better than Royal Star & Garter!"

Raquel Pena Aristizabal, Activities Manager at the Home, said: "Residents have told us they really loved our themed activities. Our Caribbean and America Days were a big hit, and so was James Bond Day."

The Surbiton Home is welcoming new residents.
